Are your children home alone in the afternoons, unable to have friends in to play or to go to others' homes?

Do you spend your afternoons at work worrying about the safety and happiness of your children?

Are your children bored at a neighbor's or relative's home?

Would your children like to learn new skills and have fun playing with other children?

Would your children benefit from additional adult role models who can help them learn respect and responsibility?

If you have answered "yes" to any of these questions, then the After School Club is the place for your child to be!
